

Meetings

Laboratory of the Government Chemist Scientific Lecture Programme

Winter 1981/82, London

The following lectures will take place at 15.00 hrs. in the Conference Room of the Laboratory of the Government Chemist, Cornwall House, Stamford Street, SE1. November 6th, 1981, "A Strategy for Chromatography and Analysis," by J. H. Purnell; December 4th, 1981, "Is Classical Analysis Really Dead?" by L. S. Bark; February 5th, 1982, "Biotechnology: Revolution or Evolution?" by I. J. Higgins; and March 5th, 1982, "Progress in Computerised Archeochemistry," by L. Biek.

Requests to attend should be addressed in advance to The Scientific Lecture Organiser (Tel. 01-928-7900, Ex. 520).